CSAs 2013

Community Shared Agriculture from Local and Organic Farms :)

Here are a few of the CSAs that I have either participated in seasonal deliveries from or have heard good things about them.

Jade Family Farm -- www.jadefamilyfarm.com

I met this CSA last year at the Camp Hill Farmers Market and loved the people and their produce. This is the family of Charles Eisenstein who's wife Stella comes to our studio. This year I am signing up for their CSA, it will be my first year trying their CSA.

June 1 – October 24 $550.00 for a full share, $385.00 for a partial share.

Thursday delivery to our area at the Camp Hill Farmers Market with other various drop off sites in the Harrisburg area.

They are located in Port Royal which is on this side of Mifflintown on the way to State College.

Everblossom Farm -- www.everblossomfarm.com

Misun highly recommends this CSA, she has had a wonderful experience with them. They offer everything from arugula to watermelons all raised from seeds and grown organically on their farm.

25 weeks running mid-May through mid-November $535.00 with various drop off sites (I could not access drop off locations on their website).

They are located in East Berlin. Plus a nice bonus they offer a winter share from Thanksgiving through march of roots and greens from their greenhouses :)

Sherlock Farms -- Thomas Sherlock www.sherlockfarms.com

Last year I got their greens with my dairy delivery and they were big full bags of awesome rich greens. Also I contacted the farm with a question and the owner responded promptly and cares about providing a good service.

April 1 $454.00 after $474.00 prior Can get delivery to your porch through Apple Valley Creamery or go to the farm to pick up.

Season runs 20 weeks June 10 – October 26

Farm is located in Abbottstown, PA

Only full shares available no half shares, but they are willing to do partial seasons at $24.00 per delivery.
